FAIRMOUNT PARK TROLLEY LINE

EMPLOYES BOUND WITH WIRE.

Safe of the Receiver Blown Open and $4,000 Stolen-Quick Work by Expert Burglars.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., June 19 .- A gang of masked robbers, prohably ten in number, early this morning raided the receiving of fice of the Fairmount Park Transportation Company at Belmont in Fairmount Park, and, after holding up the receiver and five other employes of the railway, blew open the safe, securing $4,000, the company's receipts for two days.

Frank Leavan, receiver, Frank Watson Henry B. Whitehouse, conductors, James Canaugh, fireman of the power house, Philip Eaves, electrician, and William Cadmus, laborer, were bound hand and foot with wire. In addition to the men who actually committed the robbery others operated miles away from the scene by destroying telegraph and telephone wires connecting with the trolley company's main office.

The Fairmount Park Transportation Company operates various lines of trolley cars through the park, for pleasure riders. The traffic being unusually heavy on Saturdays and Sundays, the robbers evidently decided on this morning as being a good time to make a big haul. The men above named were all in the office when the burglars made their appearance. Each intruder was armed with two revolvers and they took the employes completely by surprise. It was the work of a few moments for the robbers over to one side of the room, with their faces to the wall. Ten minutes later the safe had been cracked and the gang disap-

Frank Leavan, the night receiver, one of the men gagged and bound by the robbers, told this story of his experience: "While was standing at the office door I heard foot-steps in the rear. Turning, I saw two men with masks on their faces. They had two big revolvers and took me into the con tors' room and tied my hands and feet with wire and laid me on the floor with my face to the wall. In the room I saw Whitehouse was also being bound and gagged. When we were laid on the floor a man was detailed to guard us. In a few minutes in came an other victim, who I think was Watson conductor, and he went through the same Then two more come in and were The burglars worked quietly. They whispered whenever they said anything to any of their number. It only took them ten minutes to blow open the safe. Shortly after the mon was taken our guards left. Finally Phili-Eaves, the electrician, got himself unloq ened, and he then unloosened us. I tried . reach the city hall by wire, but the wires of both telephones had been cut, and I had to run in the pitch dark across the country to the Belmont pumping station, where gave the alarm and they telephoned and informed the detectives.

Peter Duffert and Charles Smith, who say they live in Newark, N. J., and Albert Leeds, of Philadelphia, were arrested in Fairmount Park on suspicion of being connected with the robbery.

Alleged Train Robbers Captured. MONIDA, Mont., June 19 .- Near Dwells. Ida., just south of the Yellowstone Park park scouts captured the three men supposed to be the Union Pacific train robbers. The men were surrounded by the scouts just before daybreak. The men are now being taken across the country to the Mammoth Hot Springs. This news was Ionida and Yellowstone Park stage. The names of the men are not known. They were captured without the firing of a gun.

She was a Miss Barbour, and it was at dance to which some of the young men asked him that he fell in love at first sight. He did not leave town until he had won her

RECEIVER FOR FOWLER CHASE. Young Man's Fortune to Be Turned Over to Lafayette Trust Company.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. LAFAYETTE, Ind., June 19.-In chambers this morning Judge Taylor, surrounded by an array of attorneys representing both sides in the contest for the possessions of Moses Fowler Chase, heard arguments and had read to him on behalf of the Cincinnati contestants the decree of the Hamilton County (Ohlo) Probate Court in which it was declared that the young man was of sound mind. Kumler & Gaylord, representing that tion for a receiver, but later withdrew this case, but after the court had heard formalhe would appoint a receiver to hold the half million of property until the question of sanity had been definitely determined. Young Fowler Chase, so his attorney stated, had be appointed in case such action was decided the line have the estate tied up, while the Duhmes have the young man in their charge, the next development is awaited with intense interest. Mr. Chase, the boy's father, has already filed a motion at Cincinnati for a rehearing of the case that decided him to be of sound mind, alleging among other things that those proceedings were not instituted by the son, but in reality by the persons in whose custody he unlawfully was and now is, and who obtained such possession by fraud and deceit in Detroit. The charge of abduction, or kidnaping, is freely made by the father and his attorneys, whose version of that part of the affair is like this The father, Mr. Haas, the nurse, and Moses Fowler Chase, the patient, started for Lafayette, Ind., from Oak Grove hosat Detroit at the union depot at about 9:30 at night. They were unexpectedly met there by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Duhme, of Cincin-nati, and a Mr. Peterman, an employe of Mr. Duhme, and two attendants. The whole party went to the Cadillac Hotel, expecting o come to Lafayette on June 5. Mr. Chase, the father, charges that on the night of the 5th Mr. and Mrs. Duhme and Fowler left for Cincinnati unknown to him. He has not seen the boy since. Mr. Chase came here and filed the proceedings on June 6. On June 12 Fowler Chase applied in Cincinnati and secured the judgment of the court declaring him of sound mind. Upwards of $700,000 is involved in the Moses Fowler Chase inheritance, it is understood. Mrs. Duhme is going to Maine this week and it is possible that the young man will be taken there. Judge Taylor granted all sides in the case thirty days in which to file bills of exception.

So did the Muncle management, and Poor, of Wabash, who is here, says they will remain. Bloomington and Springfield, of the defunct Western Association, are asking for admission, and President Schmidt, of the league, expects to have a compact eight-club league within a week.

MURDERER WELLS'S TRIAL. Brutal Father Who Threw Four Boys in a Well, Killing Two.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. CRAWFORDSVILLE, Ind., June 19 .- The trial of Alfred Wells, who murdered his two children, began to-day and the time was taken up in selecting a jury and making the opening statement. There was much care taken in questioning the jurors. It will be a closely-contested case, as the State will endeavor to make it appear that Wells should be hanged or sent to the penitentiary for life, while the defense will try to show that Wells was insane. They admit he knew what he was doing when stoned them to death and was aware of the consequences, but that he was "unable to control his actions." Wells was brought into court this morning and was very ner-vous, and sat with his handkerchief over his eyes, as if he were crying. His two little surviving boys, who were half killed when Louis, making their way to Puget sound | their brothers were slain, sat opposite him and gazed at him in awe. They are nice-appearing boys, eight and ten years old. Mrs. Wells is sick and unable to attend. On Thursday, June 1, Wells took his four boys, four, eight, ten and twelve years old, to gather strawberries, and on the way back to the house they came to an old well in a field. Wells stopped at the well and uncovered it, while the boys also looked in. Without any warning whatever Wells pushed all four boys into the well, in which there was about ten feet of water. Then he stood by the well and hurled bricks down on the helpless children, crushing their skulls. When one of the boys would crawl up the ragged stone edges of the well the brutal father would kick him back. Mrs. Wells heard the screams and raised the alarm. Some men ran to the scene and drove Wells away before he could complete the slaughter. The boys were taken from the well, but two were dead, their heads being crushed. One of the others was nearly dead. Wells then ran a mile to Sugar creek and plunged in, trying to drown a young man who went aft-er him. He was finally overpowered and brought to jail. It was claimed he had been acting queerly, but the officers do not be-lieve in his insanity dodge.

When it became known that Sampson would be called before the grand jury to tell what he knew concerning the burning of the barn on the ber of letters threatening his life if he named a certain person in connection with the arson. These letters were found by the family to-day and fully corroborate Sampson's story. The man named by Sampson as an accessory to the incendiarism is a resident of this city and a well-known business man. The evidence against him is very strong, though so far wholly circumstantial. Sampson made a sworn statement today for use in the event that he dies of his injuries. The Tri-County Farmers' Insurance Company is pushing the prosecution and has offered a reward of $100 for the conviction of firebugs. The company has had four incendiary fires in the last four months. The suspect will be held, not only for attempted murder, but for barn burning and defrauding insurance companies as well. The officers are working every clew and hope to have the assassin under arrest

It is the trial of Thomas Bloom, of the south part of the county, for killing James Bess. The affair occurred the latter part of March. Bloom, who is a farmer, claimed to have discovered Bess, an oli driller, stealing hay, oats, etc., from his barn. Matter, Marion; secretary, George McCulloch, Muncie; treasurer, William C. Sampson, Muncie. These, together with J. A. Vanosdol, of Anderson, constitute the board of directors. Mr. Henry stated this evening that one of the first matters that would be taken up would be the lessening of time that he was at the barn with Bloom's full knowledge and consent, using it for the purpose of stabling his horse and as a base of supplies. Bloom was indicted at a special session of the grand jury early in April and has been confined in the county jail ever since. He is an old soldier. The quarrel explanation of the crime was that Bess was murdered out of revenge owing to an old love affair. There was great indignation at the time and Broom saved trouble by going to Huntington and giving himself up.

EVERY MAN UNDER DEWEY, INCLUD-

Cruiser Detroit En Route from Fort Monroe to Washington with Gen. Daniel Macauley's Remains.

WASHINGTON, June 19.-It is stated at the Navy Department that every man attached to the Olympia, Boston, Baltimore, Concord, Raleigh, Petrel and McCulloch during the battle in Manila harbor, regardless of rank or station, will receive a medal of honor. The McCulloch, which was a revenue cutter at the outbreak of the war. was transferred to the naval service and added to Admiral Dewey's fleet. She rendered efficient support in the brilliant engagement which culminated in the annihilation of the Spanish fleet, and also carried the first official news of Admiral Dewey's victory to Hong-Kong. In view of these facts it was deemed proper that the officers and men of the McCulloch should share equally with the others in the distribution of the congressional medals, notwithstanding the fact that the McCulloch has since resumed her regular duties in the revenue cutter service under the Treasury Depart-

The Detroit sailed yesterday from Fort Monroe for Washington, bringing the remains of the late Gen. Daniel Macauley. The body will be landed at the Washington navy yard and placed temporarily in receiving vault. Some of the relatives of the deceased in the West will receive the remains. The services will be in charge of Lafayette Post, G. A. R., of New York.

It is improbable that the War Department will accept as final the decision of the Pennsylvania state court declaring that the army canteen is subject to state taxation The officer in charge of the canteen at Camp Meade appealed to the War Department for assistance in defending the case. and the department, approving of his application, transmitted it to the Department of Justice with the request that that department assume charge of the matter. It is believed that the decision was rendered before the defense could be prepared. The principle involved is regarded as important, and it is significant that the Pennsylvania decision is directly in conflict with the formal opinion of the Court of Claims in the case involving the canteen. That court decided that the canteen was "one of the instrumentalities of government" and therefore exempt from taxation.

Subscriptions received to date by the national committee of the Dewey home fund amounted to $338, making the total to date Negotiations on the Franco-American reciprocity treaty were continued at the State Department to-day and it is understood that the next few days will determine whether it is possible for the two countries come together on a trade treaty. The concessions to be granted to the United States are already settled, so that it remains only to determine what articles are to be covered in the concessions to France. Instead of picking out certain articles on which to grant concessions to this country the French proposition is to grant the entire list of articles in the minimum chedule. In return for this Commissioner Kasson has suggested a certain number of articles on which reduction of duty will b allowed to France. The Paris author-ities hardly think this goes far enough and is short of a full equivalent for granting the whole minimum schedule to the United States. The parties to the negotiations are quite hopeful of securing definite results within the next few days. I was feared for a time that the unsettled conditions of the French Cabinet might retard an understanding, but matters are proceeding without reference to the political uncertainties in Paris. Important proposi tions, in fact, have passed between Paris and Washington since the Cabinet crisis has the Servian-Turkish frontier fired at a little Turkish fort killing two soldiers and a peasant. The Turkish troops contented themselves, without moving from the place, with returning the fire. This incident on the frontier, it is said at the legation certainly was prearranged in order to produce the impression on the peace conference sit-ting at present at The Hague, that the
